Just returned from another brilliant stay at the Corbet arms. We always stay here when we visit our daughter in Shrewsbury and are never disappointed. Must mention Elaine who runs the Restaurant at breakfast time with military precision and always has a smile for everyone. Also a shout out for the house maids who also are very friendly and polite .All in all a superb and relaxing few days .One tip though if thinking... read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat in beautiful weather, and there is complimentary WLAN. The rooms on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for customers with wheelchairs or physical disabilities. What Maisiebeth doesn't like about The Corbet Arms:

Great food but a disappointing experience for a family celebration. We had to wait an hour for our dinner because the order hadn't been sent through to the kitchen. A waitress came out and apologised, said the order was on a rush and we wouldn't be charged for our mains, so it was acceptable. When the bill came out we were charged for everything and on querying it with the manager he refused to give a food discount a... read more. If eating and drinking is too unexciting for you, go to this sports bar for a variety of large and small snacks and meals and catch live football, tennis or Formula 1 games, In addition, the sweet desserts of the establishment shine not only in the eyes of the little guests. After the meal (or during it), you have the opportunity to also relax at the bar with a alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, In addition, the cocktail menu that is offered in this established eatery is impressive. It offers a diverse assortment of beers from the region and the whole world.
