Ended up here at short notice after another place fell through. Couldn't have been more hospitable. The food was great, portions are massive and exactly what the doctor ordered! Service was excellent! Will definitely be back. read more. As a visitor, you can use the WiFi of the establishment at no extra cost, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and be served. The rooms on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for customers with wheelchairs or physical disabilities. What BobG1328 doesn't like about The Plough Inn:

As the revue before this says the staff leave much to be desired . They flit from I don 't have the authority to charge less without PHONING the manager to I 'm the supervisor when you say it 's not their job to determine how much food the kitchen cooks as they 're service staff. Make your mind up you 're incharge or you ain 't. Don 't argue with customers if they complain about food quality after you 've asked if it... read more. A roundtrip through Great Britain without getting on a plane is absolutely possible when it comes to culinary delights: The Plough Inn in Sheffield traditionally shines for instance with Fish and Chips, mashed potatoes or roast with Yorkshire Pudding and for dessert a fine Trifle, here they serve a diverse brunch in the morning. After the meal (or during it), you can still relax at the bar with a alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink.
