Great place off the beaten track , I was working in nearby Loughborough and stayed here for two nights. Seems Covid friendly , staggered breakfast and dinner times , masks to be worn and sanitiser around. Room was clean and comfortable and bathroom was clean . Limited menu in the restaurant but food was very good.

Recommended. read more. The place also offers the possibility to sit outside and have something in nice weather. What Michelecox doesn't like about Quorn Grange:

Very disappointing. The menu choices were very limited for a lunch menu. The prices were very expensive for the quality and quantity which was served for 3 very young children. One adult meal consisting of a bowl of soup (tasteless and bland) and cheese sandwich on stale white bread served with a little green lettuce. £11.

Outrageous. Total price £60.50. After complaining on paying the bill. I mentioned how disappoint... read more.
