Lovely place to visit with younger kids or just anyone who likes to watch old trains. The cafe was excellent, staff friendly and food was much better than I would have expected read more. You can use the WiFi of the place at no extra cost, And into the accessible rooms also come visitors with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. If the weather are right, you can also eat and drink outside. What User doesn't like about Granite's Coffee Shop: Don't bother going if you are GF. Bread is tiny, nasty tasting and overpriced. GF choice limited and portions too small. I was left hungry and with a poor taste in mouth from bread. Can't find my first review which went into more detail. I'm sad because it used to be great.
