The restaurant and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physiological limitations, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and have something. What Keith Harris doesn't like about The Fox Inn:

The management of this pub ought not rely on the really nice woman working in the bar to also cook our food. Not surprisingly the food therefore took over an hour to arrive and then was pretty much inedible cremated, oily chips accompanied oily fried fish. My steak and ale pie was ok but was accompanied by those offending chips and this time undercooked peas. I really feel for the person serving us, completely unapp... read more.
