I went to Kaffirár many times in the 2 months I spent in Reykjavík. It is a nice simple place were to have a great coffee, and there is a good selection of sweets or small snacks, with a few vegan options as well. It opens early too. Staff could be a bit more focused as it happened a couple times that I had to go back to ask for a coffee that never arrived, bit they were always friendly so that's the most important. What User doesn't like about Kaffitar Bankastraeti:

Pros of this place: free coffee refills, accessible location Cons: grumpy staff (or maybe this woman was just mad to be awake so early? We went right when they opeend), no spoons to eat yogurt with, stiff seating Things I wish I'd known: even though the menus switch between Icelandic and English, they have menus at the counter, so you can just pick one up and you don't have wait for the menu to change back read more.
