My latte is lovely and frothy, and they've put their name in chocolate on the top which I rather love. My pain au raisin is rather dry and served on a plate that is way too large for the pastry and takes up about half of my table.

Also they are playing rather dramatic classical music, that instead of giving them the air of sophistication I assume they are trying to achieve it just makes them seem rather pretentious read more. In Cafe Vergnano, a restaurant that serves Italian dishes in Camden, you can expect typical Italian cuisine, including classics like pizza and pasta, Especially the delicious juices are highly appreciated by the guests.
