Our first visit. It was very busy but there were a couple of free tables. They were short staffed so service was quite slow but the food was nice. Tasty jacket potatoes and the side salad was the best I've ever had! Packed with so many different things! Not a great selection of cakes on offer so didn't bother to order any. There's a note on the table saying they prefer cash payment which is something I've never seen... read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physiological limitations, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and be served. What dod9899 doesn't like about The Gypsy Cream:

I'm so disappointed with the Scottish hospitality industry constantly complaining about lack of trade. We visited this tearoom today at 3.05pm on the busiest week of the year, chose a table and proceeded to the cake display to select something tasty, to then be told Sorry, we're closed now.
