We eat at Radhuni regularly and Abi, Mack, Mohammed and the team are brilliant. The food is fantastic. They have your usual "Indian" restaurant stuff, but a wander around the menu takes you to some beautiful meals. So much so, that when I wanted my 60th birthday party catered for Radhuni was the obvious choice. Ordering a takeaway for 30+ people could have been daunting, but not here. The food was amazing, delivered... read more.

The restaurant and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physical limitations. Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and have something. Radhuni in Barnet prepares with typical Indian spices delicious meals, accompanied by sides like rice or naan, freshly. The visitors of the establishment also appreciate the large selection of various coffee and tea specialities that the restaurant has to offer. The Asian fusion cuisine is likewise an important part of Radhuni. Anyone who finds the normal and generally known dishes too ordinary can here approach with a willingness to experiment and try some exciting combination of ingredients consume, on the menu there are also a lot of Asian dishes.
