What User likes about Jack's Surf: this is our second time to stay in allonby and to visit jacks after great meals last time. we were not disappointed, the meal times are still worth on the big side and good, I had the smaller part of the beef curry just the right. read more. The restaurant and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physiological limitations, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and eat. WiFi is available free of charge. What Barry Green doesn't like about Jack's Surf: Ate there one evening with the family .. Food was good value... Tasted great... And loads of it.... Returned today for a take out lunch as they advertise to be told that the restaurant was their priority and literally shoed out of the entrance hall.....No customer should be told they are not priority in such a rude and quite aggressive manner... Very disappointed after the previous night.... read more. Jack's Surf from Allerdale is a suitable bar to have a beer after work, and sit with friends or alone, Also, the drinks menu at this place is exceptional and offers a significant and comprehensive diversity of both local and international beers, which are definitely worth a try. Even if you're only not so much hungry, you can still treat yourself to one of the fine sandwiches, a healthy salad or another snack.
