What User likes about Rio Fish:

not have been for many years to fish bar, but after returning to brixham after many years we decided to dinner at rio, what can I say, the cod and chips, where only amazing quality was two to none. steve had our lunches boiled to perfection and bridget was the perfect hostess excellent service and very friendly, I would highly recommend chipshop as the perfect fish shop read more. In nice weather you can even eat and drink in the outdoor area, and there is no-charge WiFi. What User doesn't like about Rio Fish:

kitsch is the word for the big plastic sharks and other fish, mermaids, model sailors with diving etc. on the dach, the children would undoubtedly love it. the seating is cramped and the table we were sitting was not clean, I suppose we could have chosen another table. they were not so busy, no one else should be fed with eating or commanding, but after a waiting period we had to tell someone we were there. the perso...
