What dianarhoward likes about The Kings Head: The food here is always good and the menu changes frequently enough. I use this pub on a weekly basis as we have our regular bridge night here. They are so friendly to us in our back room spot. The service is excellent and the quality very good in every area. In the warmer months they have a terraced area out back surrounded by english garden prettiness and an area out front overlooking this Cotswold village green. T... read more. The premises in the restaurant are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physical limitations, and there is complimentary WLAN. If the weather are right, you can also eat and drink outside. What DavidTWinfield doesn't like about The Kings Head:

The Kings head is a pub with history which is listed on the blackboard. It is a proper local pub. If you want good priced tasty food served by friendly staff go and take in the local atmosphere. It's not fine dining and it doesn't pretend to be. read more. A journey through Great Britain without getting on a plane is absolutely possible when it comes to culinary delights: The Kings Head in Cotswold traditionally shines for example with Fish and Chips, mashed potatoes or roast with Yorkshire Pudding and as dessert a sweet Trifle, The visitors of the establishment also consider the comprehensive variety of various coffee and tea specialities that the restaurant offers.
