We called in for a light, late lunch but we weren't impressed. It was such a shame as we had visited exactly two years before (to the day) had a lovely lunch with our family. On this occasion I had a pint of San Miguel my partner a half of cider, then I had a Cornish pasty which came with fries a side salad. The pasty filling was tasty but I got the impression it had been in a microwave as the pastry was a little moi... read more.
