Nestled in Tickhill, this local chippy is a mixed bag of culinary experiences. While many patrons rave about the crispy, flaky fish and perfectly golden chips, some customers have found flaws, noting replacement fish and soggy batter in their meals. The establishment enjoys a loyal following, with commendations for friendly service and generous portions, particularly of kebabs and chicken. For some, a late-night visit culminates in satisfying meals, while others express disappointment in the mushy peas or reheated dishes. Overall, the restaurant stands out for its potential yet has room for improvement in consistency and quality.
