Visited on Christmas Eve, we had pre booked a table by email which had a prompt response. We were a family party of and received excellent service from the young lads who looked after us. Everyone agreed their breakfast was delicious and there were...lots of empty plates, the bread used was really nice too. The cafe was quite busy but no one seemed to wait very long for their food. Would definitely recommend read more. The place also offers the possibility to sit outside and be served in beautiful weather, and there is complimentary WiFi. The rooms on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for customers with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. What

Alison Harris doesn't like about Cafe Paninis:

Had a full English breakfast. The sausages and bacon were very over cooked. I requested a very well cooked egg though and it was attempted but not achieved. It was busy and staff were welcoming and inviting. The temperature was very high and quite uncomfortable...also. Apologies for a mixed review but I was disappointed. read more.
