The premises on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for customers with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities.

What S735DSkatea doesn't like about The Plough Inn:

I've eaten here many times and had good food. However the last meal was very poor. My chips were undercooked, some were hard my friend had a burger that was burnt at the edges and hard to chew. Won't be returning when there are better pubs in close proximity. Very disappointing. read more. The Plough Inn from Shropshire is a good place for a bar to a cocktail after work and be able to sit with friends or alone, Furthermore, the drinks menu in this restaurant is impressive and offers a good and comprehensive variety of beers from the area and from worldwide, which are definitely worth a try. Most often, the burgers of this restaurant, which are among the highlights, are offered along with filling side dishes like french fries, salads or wedges, Lovers of the British cuisine are impressed by the extensive selection of traditional meals and enjoy the taste of England.
