my partner and I always make a point to eat here when we go to die, just because the food is excellent and the staff is top-class, but our visit yesterday pushed out the boat. my partner was very uneasy at the point of total collapse due to heart problems. I chose a sick car that was called and the staff entered immediately with help and support. I'm sorry, I should have names, but the circumstances have come in the... read more. The rooms in the restaurant are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physiological limitations, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and have something. WiFi is available at no extra cost. What louise G doesn't like about The Greengrocer:

Takes a while for food, havent been able to get a proper cooked poached egg, gives hot drinks too early for the time it takes for food to be served so the drink is either finished or cold read more. A journey through Great Britain without getting on a plane is absolutely possible when it comes to culinary delights: The Greengrocer in Stirling traditionally shines for instance with Fish and Chips, mashed potatoes or roast with Yorkshire Pudding and as dessert a fine Trifle, For a snack, you can also have the tasty sandwiches, healthy salads and other snacks. Furthermore, you'll find scrumptious American menus, like for instance burgers and grilled meat on the menu, and you can look forward to typical tasty French cuisine.
