What User likes about Viva La Puglia:

cozy and intimate restaurant. very friendly staff, despite us tourist! they did not speak English, so we spoke French. eating was delicious and exceeded our expectations. our young children loved it (3 and 5) and the staff didn't suggest that we brought children with us. our young were welcome, just like we. recommend them to anyone who visits ghent. a real sound! read more. What User doesn't like about Viva La Puglia:

the personal is friendly, the atmosphere pleasant. eating is old school, and not on a good way: too much sauce and too much cheese on everything; the few nice are overcooked. the white wine list is only token - only 3 lists. the red list is longer, but everywhere, with 1-2 of each of several regions, with taking out a larger selection from the toskana. there are some good decisions, but many mediocre. The red are not... read more.
