Dropped in on a Wednesday Lunchtime to find all tables full of people eating. The staff were friendly which led us to decide to stay for Lunch when a table became free. It was a cold frosty day and the crackling real fire and good beer it was a lovely way to while away an hour or so. The Steak and Kidney Pie had a lovely crust and generous filling that came with a good selection of veg. The Loaded fries with a side o... read more.
