What a fantastic find! We had dinner with friends on Saturday evening, looking out to the River Colne. The 4 of us were blown away by the amazing quality of our starters and mains. Proper home made food, exceeding any expectations of pub grub. My fish cakes were to die for! Pork Belly main, the best I've ever had, with crackling that a Michelin chef would be proud of, whilst the pork just melted in a fantastic rich grav... read more. As a customer, you can use the WiFi of the place at no extra cost, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and be served. The premises on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for customers with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. What User doesn't like about The Anchor:
Used to come to this pub for the great views, good food and a great selection of Shephard and Neame real ales.....Two of those things have gone. I'll let you guess what stayed the same! I did have a lovely fish and chips, my partner had Chicken wrapped in Parma ham, but unfortunately the carrots were only partly cooked (couldn't stick your fork in it)! the cabbage wasn't seasoned, the mash was only thing that tasted ok, The kid...
