I decided to meet a little to celebrate my youngest engagement on the ship and they made it brilliant. they reserved a whole thing for us, but we still felt like "in pub", they were attentive and efficient to ensure that we always had drinks but without pressure. the atmosphere was great. I can't mistake it and would come back absolutely if for a party of group event again. Thank you! read more. When the weather is nice you can also have something outside, And into the accessible spaces also come visitors with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. What User doesn't like about The Ship Inn:

slow service, table for 1pm booked and finally served at 1.50 pm. very simple Brat dinner. badly boiled anaemic bratkartoffels looking, small plate of overboiled vegetables for three, generic water sword, meat ok. instead of tasteless. beautiful old school puddings though. beautiful waitress . no. water offered. beautiful pub decoration, friendly local pub vibe.
