My husband and I enjoyed a wonderful Sunday lunch here with our 3 large dogs. The staff were amazing at accommodating us despite us not having a booking on a busy Sunday lunchtime and we had a wonderful table in a secluded area giving us enough space to settle our dogs and eat without playing lead swap all the time, which can be a real issue eating out with more dogs present at the table than humans! The service was... read more.

As a customer, you can use the WLAN of the place at no extra cost, And into the accessible rooms also come customers with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. If the weather are right, you can also eat and drink outside. What User doesn't like about Charles Bathurst Inn:

Went for dinner, starters were fine, when the pie arrived, we were surprised to find 2 small pieces of beef and rest was mushrooms. Meals were tasty enough....Place just didn't sparkle.
