The website for this pub advertises it as one of two pubs on the site attached to a small brewery. The photos are of what I assume was the Plough pub. They look like a cosy stone walled pub. But it seems that it is The Taproom that is now open. That is a huge, brightly lit, echoey high ceilinged room with very little atmosphere. The brewery is now apparently closed. The menu is a much reduced version of the one on th... read more. A journey through Great Britain without getting on a plane is easily possible when it comes to culinary delights: The Plough Inn in Shropshire traditionally shines for instance with Fish and Chips, mashed potatoes or roast with Yorkshire Pudding and as dessert a sweet Trifle, At the bar, you can unwind with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks. Look forward to the enjoyment of tasty vegetarian meals, In addition, the drinks menu that is offered in this established eatery is impressive. It offers a diverse selection of beers from the region and the whole world.
