Super friendly staff and very tasty food. Being its not on a high street it is not too busy most nights especially early evening but you can book a table just to be sure. They don't have a licence to sell alcohol but instead they are happy for you to bring your own and there is a handy mini market next door should you forget. Recommended. read more. In nice weather you can even have something in the outdoor area. What User doesn't like about

Rose Of Kashmir:

excellent eating. we ordered mushroom balti, tarka dal, bombay potatoes, pilau rice and a huh biryani, plus egg fried rice, for a group of 3 pairs for the collection. waited about 20 minutes, then the order went to collect. another wait in the shop, but not too long. eating was just the right temperature when we came home, and very generous portions. baltis were really good and tasty, biriyani was light and tasty as...
