I have been here with my partner a random afternoon. The venue is very nice and staff very welcoming and friendly. The manager Patricia and the waiter Vincenzo were very professional and knowledgeable. Food is very nice and amazing pizza and this one is the best place we had in London recently. Will see you soon. The rooms on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for clientele with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. What User doesn't like about Rossopomodoro:

Fine for a meal in desperation part way though a shopping crusade, but not a lot else to recommend it. Service good (although restaurant 80% empty) and the bruschetta and tomato pasta decent. The pizza was a huge disappointment- base nice, but huge scrim on quality and quantity on the toppings. Would only go back under hypoglycemic duress. read more. The Rossopomodoro from City of London, Westminster provides meals that are typical for the entire continent of Europe, here they serve a diverse brunch in the morning. Of course, there's also delicious pizza, baked straight from the oven according to traditional recipes, and you can look forward to traditional Italian cuisine with classics like pizza and pasta.
