Here you can find the menu of Chris Jerk in Scarborough. At the moment, there are 29 courses and drinks on the card. Nestled in Scarborough, this bustling Caribbean bistro boasts an inviting ambiance and a menu brimming with flavorful twists on Jamaican classics. Diners rave about the jerk chicken—particularly the poutine variant—while appreciating large portion sizes and vibrant flavors. Notably, the jerk sauce garners praise for its sweetness, though some dishes reportedly lack spice. Service can be hit or miss, with sporadic friendliness noted. While the line may signal popularity, the wait times can be lengthy. Overall, this eatery stands out as a promising destination for Caribbean cuisine aficionados willing to overlook some service hiccups.
