Visited for brunch with my three teens. I say brunch; for me, it was way past lunchtime for them, being on half term, 1230 was frankly first thing in the morning! Coffee was good, full English for rapidly growing boy was "immense". Milkshake and panini, "lush" and despite the cold (of which no one can be responsible for...unless you speak with the resident vegan, whose needs would have been amply catered for, had she...
