This is the restaurant in the Barony Castle Hotel so as we were staying there, we dined there, too. The food is very well presented and very tasty. Cooking your own steak on a lava stone is an experience. The menu is fairly extensive and offers a wide choice. read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and have something. WiFi is available at no extra cost. What jimnal doesn't like about Thomson's At The Castle:

Booked dinner here as part of our stay at the hotel. The choice on the menu is very limited although you can choose to order from the bar menu which has much more of a choice which seems a bit pointless Food was good and the service was fine Not some place I would rush back to however read more. A journey through Great Britain without getting on a plane is effortlessly possible when it comes to culinary delights: Thomson's At The Castle in Scottish Borders traditionally shines for instance with Fish and Chips, mashed potatoes or roast with Yorkshire Pudding and for dessert a fine Trifle, the restaurant provides also meals from the European environment. At the bar, you can also relax after the meal (or during it) with an alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, In addition, the cocktail menu that is offered in this established eatery is impressive. It offers a diverse variety of beers from the region and the whole world.
