Here you can find the menu of The Sawyers Arms in Manchester. At the moment, there are 16 courses and drinks on the card. Nestled along Deansgate Street, this pub presents a mixed experience for visitors. While some patrons appreciate the welcoming atmosphere, impressive decor, and friendly staff, others report delays in service and underwhelming food. The establishment offers a solid selection of ales, including the popular Timothy Taylor. Many customers enjoy the relaxed vibe, making it an ideal spot for drinks and conversation, especially with sports playing on the screens. Despite occasional service snags, the pub receives praise for cleanliness and accommodating staff, particularly regarding dietary needs. Overall, it remains a decent option for a casual outing in the city.
