Brilliant meal, cooked by Ali and with the kind and prompt attentions of Nash who served us. They had made every effort to decorate the restaurant for Valentine's Day which helped the atmosphere. A lot cheaper, and better food than the eye wateringly expensive Indian restaurant down the road! read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physiological limitations, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and have something. What User doesn't like about The Eastern Brasserie: Had a shocking take away on Friday. Had to pick up so went into the restaurant. Really dirty walls and furniture. I don't think it's been decorated for over 20 years. My son ordered the classic chicken tikka masala. This was 6 pcs of chicken in a long foil container swimming in tomato soup flavoured with curry sauce. The whole meal was really disappointing. My advice to the owner is go to Dishoom and be inspired... I... read more. The Eastern Brasserie in Hertsmere offers freshly prepared tasty meals with typical Indian spices and sides like rice or naan, tasty vegetarian dishes are also on the menu available. After the meal (or during it), you can also relax at the bar with a alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, Furthermore, the drinks list in this restaurant is impressive and offers a good and extensive diversity of beers from the area and from worldwide, which are definitely worth a try.
