We came to Maplethorpe for a last minute break over summer and decided to come here for a carvery after reading the reviews. It did not disappoint! We didn't book but were able to get a table even though it was super busy. The prices were really reasonable we paid £45 for drinks and carvery for 2 adults, a child and a baby. I am not exaggerating when I say this is the best carvery we have ever had, there was so much... read more.
