What a generous friendly place I had a migraine and wanted to take some tablets I asked to buy a slice of toast and the lovely waiting staff just made me one free of charge ! Such kindness is a rare commodity and would certainly make me return Lovely cup of tea too and my partner enjoyed his millionaires shortbread very much too read more. The premises in the restaurant are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physiological limitations, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and be served. What User doesn't like about Biancos Deli:

Ordered a take away. I'd say it's way over priced for what you get. The fillings are are really disappointing. I had the fajita panini/hot sandwich. Minimal chicken, and I can't help but think the veg where frozen veg, they tasted watery and very soft no crunch to the peppers at all, very bland taste no fajita kick. Could have made it myself at home for a much cheaper price. 1.80 for a small tub of sauce too ! I was... read more. You don't want to wait forever for your food?!
