I spent a nice couple of hours sitting outside the kitchen, looking over poole park lake. I saw people peddle paddle 'swan boats', birds whisper and call, people enjoy their day. I had cheesy chips and a glass of wee in the sun. very relaxing and will return soon. read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physical disabilities, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and be served. WiFi is available at no extra cost. What User doesn't like about The Kitchen Poole Park:

Some things on the menu had already run out in the early afternoon. We had a croque monsieur, which was soft and soggy instead of having crispy cheese on top, and the tuna with spring onion ciabatta was warmed, but tough to eat, not crispy. Disappointing, not a pleasure to eat and not up to an enjoyable standard. Won't be calling in again. read more.
