We stopped here over the weekend having taken advantage of a deal that was emailed to us. Bar Lovely friendly place where we were made to feel welcome and the beers on offer were very well kept. Restaurant Nice cost place where the food that was coming from the kitchen looked delicious. We both said that our choices were really nice ,great portion sizes, top quality produce that was cooked to perfection. Rooms Our ro... read more. The diner is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physiological limitations, and there is no-charge WLAN. If the weather are right, you can also eat and drink outside. What Roboman doesn't like about

The Black Swan:

Stayed for the weekend and had requested a room with walk in shower due to mobility issues, this was provided with no problem. However, it was very small and not what we would expect for £120 per night. There was nowhere to sit apart from the bed and there was just room to walk around the bed, it would have been more suited as a single. On the plus side the room was very clean and tea, coffee, biscuits bottled water... read more.

The large range of coffee and tea specialties makes a visit to The Black Swan even more worthwhile, At the bar, you can unwind with a cool beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks. Moreover, there are a wealth of classically British menus on the card that will evoke nostalgic feelings in every Brit abroad, here they serve a diverse brunch in the morning.
