On this site, you can find the complete menu of The Gardens from State College. Currently, there are 28 meals and drinks up for grabs. The Gardens Restaurant at The Penn Stater offers a mixed dining experience that caters to various tastes. While some reviewers found the ambiance and service lacking, particularly during busy periods, others praised the exceptional food quality, highlighting standout dishes like baked brie and lamb gravy. The buffet is known for its diverse options, including a commendable Sunday brunch, though some guests noted inconsistencies in the breakfast offerings. Families appreciate the accommodating environment, especially for those with infants. Overall, while there are areas for improvement, the food quality and thoughtful service shine through, making it a popular choice for many.
