Wow we went here pretty much on a whim yesterday evening... what a delightful pub! I have passed by The County Arms many times and not really given it much thought. Arranging to meet a friend yesterday she suggested it as a convenient mid way point between the two of us. read more. The diner is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physical limitations, and there is free WiFi. If the weather are right, you can also eat outside. What User doesn't like about The County Arms:

Sunday, bloody Sunday. After we had an amazing experience here before, we were bitterly disappointed by the Sunday lunch offer. we had been warned to preorder the roast, but no such warnings were given over the rest of the menu. at the end there was only a third of the offers available, and even then we were told that the things were not available after we had ordered. all credits to the employees who were clearly us...
