What a wonderful place. I've never been to a tea room. My friend invited for her 40th celebration. It's so Preety fun warm and friendly. I'm lucky to have a great friend who works here. The gals we do lovely and welcoming. Food is yum. I'll be back again soon. Thank you. read more. In nice weather you can even eat and drink in the outdoor area. What User doesn't like about Something Lovely Tea Rooms:

Such a shame, visited Saturday morning for the first time for breakfast, no room upstairs but was told tables in the basement, it was a freezing cold damp smelling area with no one else there, we went back upstairs and said we would not stay as it was cold and all the lady said was ok bye, not a great way to run a business and such a shame as we was going to be bringing and booking for a big group next Saturday.
