What User likes about The Shire Inn:

Amazing carvery. The meat was juicy and delicious and the roast potatoes were crispy and tasty. Great to see creamed leeks as an option too. Really friendly staff. read more. The place also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat and drink in pleasant weather, and there is complimentary WLAN. The premises on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for guests with wheelchairs or physical disabilities. What SophieVBrown doesn't like about The Shire Inn:

Been here so many times for carvery and have always enjoyed it however charging extra for sides of parsnips for example is disappointing and has put me off returning which is a real shame. Desserts are brilliant and the food itself I cannot fault. To have all sides it would work out very expensive....please get it back to how it was before and increase the overall price of the carvery to include all the bits. read more. A journey through Great Britain without getting on a plane is absolutely possible when it comes to culinary delights: The Shire Inn in Cornwall, Isles of Scilly traditionally shines for instance with Fish and Chips, mashed potatoes or roast with Yorkshire Pudding and as dessert a sweet Trifle, You can also unwind at the bar with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks. In this locale there is also an large selection of coffee and tea specialties not to forget, here they serve a comprehensive brunch in the morning.
