The premises on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for customers with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. What User doesn't like about The Bridge Inn:

Visited as a couple on Friday night in February. Main room was fairly busy but we were taken into the extension where we were the only customers. No atmosphere and cold portable heater being used. Food was OK but nothing special. Another couple of diners arrived and that was it. They left before us. Staff forgot about us and we were left sitting with empty glasses. The main room had thinned out but there was no offer... read more. During meals, a refreshing drink is essential. In this gastropub, you will find not only tasty menus, but also a large and comprehensive diversity of good beers and other alcoholic drinks that compliment the food, Naturally, you can't miss out on the delicious burgers, which are accompanied by sides like fries, salads, or wedges offered.
