As soon as we have a menu for The Prince Of Wales from Mole Valley, we will publish it here. In the meantime, feel free to take a look at the meal plans in the surrounding area. Or help us by making available the meal plan here. What User likes about The Prince Of Wales:

We took family members for lunch here and were delighted with the cuisine, it was of a high quality that you would expect in more upmarket in better surroundings. The decor was basic as was the furniture. The pub is badly in need of a new fit out, which would certainly attract more diners. It is a shame because the pub is situated in a lovely set in the Surrey Hills, It begs an uplift ,but in the meantime it needs al... read more. In pleasant weather you can even be served in the outdoor area, and there is complimentary WLAN. The rooms on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for customers with wheelchairs or physical disabilities. What User doesn't like about The Prince Of Wales:

We used to love a walk to the Prince of Wales for a pint and a bite. Obviously under some temporary management the place has really dived. Messy garden, no tables on the grass and food that was basically inedible. Seemingly off a Brake Brothers mass menu the garlic bread was barely grilled, the pie and mash virtually inedible with gravy in a boat with unidentified stuff floating in it, my wife's jacket potato was gre...
