I went to bridgwater to meet a friend and that saw a good choice (online) as I am vegan and on a budget. at the arrival I was not sure that it was open as it is next to the engine room film centre that was closed and lighter went out. to my relief it was open and I had a very nice green thai curry with rice. also a cup coffee with soy milk. eating was hot and fresh and very affordable. I'm back. read more. When the weather is good you can also eat outside, And into the accessible rooms also come visitors with wheelchairs or physical limitations. What User doesn't like about The Engine Room Cafe:

came here on a wet windy morning in the hope of coffee something light eating. only vegetable milk in the offer was soy literally the only vegan food offer was avocado on toast or a curry (which at 10.30 am I not really tasted) not even any cake. the avo on toast was ok, but overall I was disappointed if I had proposed otherwise in previous reviews to have zero choice?
