Went here as the beancross is closed expecting similar food but it's not in the same league. They have went too cheap and the £10 for 3 courses is shown in the quality of the produce. Chicken goujons are frozen and very cheap, veg is...either frozen or even canned, roast beef is that tough you can barely get a knife through it. Brie was good as was the steak pie and cheesecake, no complaints on the mac and cheese. Se... read more.
