We called in for a pint whilst out exploring the local area. Dogs are welcome and our two were very welcomed in. Very clean, with friendly staff. We had a pint of Wainwright and half a neck oil. Both were really good. Recommended if you're passing by . We did not get food or stay in rooms so cannot comment on those . Hotel highlights: Quiet read more. When the weather is pleasant you can also eat outside, And into the accessible spaces also come guests with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. A roundtrip through Great Britain without getting on a plane is easily possible when it comes to culinary delights: The Cricketers Arms in County Durham traditionally shines for example with Fish and Chips, mashed potatoes or roast with Yorkshire Pudding and for dessert a fine Trifle, here they serve a comprehensive brunch for breakfast.
