User likes about Lucky Days:

we originally saw the lucky days cafe on the main road, but on the arrival it was said that they were full and invite their others to try the corner. two minutes later we sat in this. eating was fantastic. the main with three salates option gave us a lot of variety and both the woman and I ended up with clean tellers to the end. I had the cowardly and stylton pane and my wife was the mushroom tar. the atmosphere insi... read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and be served in nice weather. What User doesn't like about Lucky Days:

I had a touch on toast with a small piece of salmon for an extra £3 and cold mushrooms also cost extra. a page of the menu is quite complicated with different salads that I really do not care to understand. it would be better if they were just costing individually. had tee, but when it is served in a metal teapot, it feels like a kantine. tee should be served in a ceramic pot. it was taylor's by harrogate earl grey,... read more. With the large variety of coffee and tea specialties, a visit to Lucky Days becomes even more attractive, For a snack, the fine sandwiches, healthy salads and other snacks are suitable. If you decide to come for breakfast, you are offered a hearty brunch.
