Visiting on a Saturday lunchtime about 12.30, shocked to find we were the only patrons. Welcoming, warm atmosphere and obviously plenty of room, menu was okay, nothing special but as expected for this type of place that caters more for night-time crowd. Loaded hash browns very filling. Staff friendly, no regrets about the visit, and the limitless hit drinks welcome on a cold day. read more. In beautiful weather you can even be served in the outdoor area. What Joanne L doesn't like about The Old Post Office:

Went for the first time after reading reviews and looking at the photos on the website. Dirty cutlery and glasses.

Quesadillas were average. Gyros wrap was like a frisbee and couldn't get a knife through it. Filling average.

Nachos very bland, looked nothing like the photos on the website and didn't come with soured cream, guacamole or salsa. Definitely won't be making a return visit and wouldn't recommend despite ot...
