Stopped here for Friday night drinks only. This is a good atmospheric establishment with good facilities all around. There is a car park on the side. The bar staff were friendly and welcoming. The place was very busy. Choices of beers was good. This is our first visit here since the ownership has changed. Others pubs in the area stopped doing restaurant food menu seems to have helped the Wheel. We will have to visit... read more. The place also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat in beautiful weather, And into the accessible rooms also come visitors with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. What S Parmar doesn't like about The Wheel Inn:

Rating based on my last visit a while back where the service was good but two pathetic troublemakers Stevie Goodrem (awful human being) and Dale Scott who acted like they owned the property (found out they didn't) acted immorally and ruined the atmosphere. Service: 4 Atmosphere: 1 read more. A roundtrip through Great Britain without getting on a plane is absolutely possible when it comes to culinary delights: The Wheel Inn in Oadby and Wigston traditionally shines for instance with Fish and Chips, mashed potatoes or roast with Yorkshire Pudding and as dessert a sweet Trifle, At the bar, you can relax with a cool beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks. Even if you're only not so much hungry, you can still treat yourself to one of the tasty sandwiches, a small salad or another snack.
