Had a meal yesterday and was greeted immediately and shown to our table, offered drinks and popadom to get us started, food was fantastic and the atmosphere was great with other tables of people dining in. Beer and wine was nice and took advantage of their 20% discount on food offered in the week. read more. The place also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat in nice weather, And into the accessible rooms also come visitors with wheelchairs or physical limitations. What User doesn't like about Maya:

I had a takeaway recently on Saturday evening. The food was awful. Do you call that a tikka massala they just mixed some dehydrated coconut with some chicken tikka and water. The special rice worst rice ever no salt nothing. My wife had a biriyani and it was like the special Fried rice no salt and just bland and soggy. Papadams we're crushed in the brown bag. I love Indian food and am open to mistakes but if you serv... read more. Maya

The accomplished Asian fusion cuisine will thrill you, the perfect balance of traditional dishes and exciting new creations will amaze!, With typical Indian spices, menus are fine and freshly prepared. The preparation of the dishes is done typically Asian.
