Jennifer M likes about Café St Honoré:

Highly recommend! We used the private room to celebrate a birthday. Booking was easy, even from the States.

Some of our party have food allergies, which were taken seriously enough that special menus were printed.

Importantly, the food was spectacular. The service was the right level of helpful without being intrusive, and friendly even when some of our group wanted to have extended conversations about local politics... read more.

The diner is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities. What Jim

McCabe doesn't like about Café St Honoré:

Lovely setting but hugely disappointing food and very poor value for money. Seems to be living on its reputation from when it was a 'proper' French restaurant. Three choices (plus a very expensive main special) for each course £15/30 for starters/ mains. Just very ordinary food and certainly not good enough at those prices. read more. At Café St Honoré from Edinburgh, different fine French courses are served, At the bar, you can unwind with a cool beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks. Also, they provide you tasty seafood menus, You will not only have an impressive outlook of the deliciously decorated menus, but you will also be offered a beautiful outlook of some of the regional highlights.
