I've been here a couple of times on a Sunday for the carvery and I must say it is impressive The wine is quite overpriced but the establishment is very friendly and clean and they serve the roast by one table at a time which is nice Make sure you book well in advance as they are often fully booked! What User doesn't like about The Woodpecker:

We had a few pints in this pub on election night. Good selection of ales and lagers on tap, good service in a big well appointed pub. But there was nobody in the place. The one other patron and the bartender where watching Emeraldale on the telly and the switched over to some other soap afterwards. Nice place but needs to do some work to increase the atmosphere.
