I'm here a couple of times with my colleague when we're working around the corner. I must say this place is really a hidden gem! the inner and the outer is very outdated; strange chairs and tables, white walls and water served in metal cups, but I think that's it trying to get the authenticity of the kitchen. they have a very small and simple menu, but this is what allows them to perfect whatever they already tell. I... read more.
